

Each season is an opportunity for beauty, renewal, and self-transformation. Through poems tailored to the themes, moods, and emotions of each season, this collection of original poetry pleasurablely evokes the joys, sorrows, and triumphs of living in a glowing world: a world that is vibrantly alive with energies that can nurture, revitalize, and inspire us all.

“An irresistible collection of living, glowing gems, handed to us from a joyous heart...a place that sings with wonder, where...every moment of life is a treasure filled with promise, holiness and meaning.” Diane Farr, award-winning novelist

“A marvelously spiritual, sensory feast of seasonal poetry.” Kristin Johnson, author

“Ms. Howell captures the wonder of how nature speaks to us.” Sherry Russell, Midwest Book Review

Trisha Howell’s poems have been published in many anthologies. She holds an MA in Philosophy, an MA in Humanities, and an MA in Critical Film Studies. She’s taught at Stanford University and the University of Southern California and frequently offers educational programs at libraries, schools, bookstores, and other organizations. Her lifelong love of nature and of poetry come together in this collection.
