NeuroCranial Restructuring: Unleash Your Structural Power is the definitive explanation of the technique that is revolutionizing physical medicine.

NeuroCranial Restructuring (NCR) is the most powerful manipulation technique in existence, redefining protocols for the treatment of pain and dozens of other conditions. It improves facial beauty, postural patterns, mental and emotional clarity as well as a variety of physical health disorders.

Developed over 23 years by Dean Howell, N.D., NCR creates permanent, incremental improvement in the body's structure. This allows the body to return to its original design—which is its most vibrant, harmonious, pain-free and energetic mode of functioning.

NeuroCranial Restructuring: Unleash Your Structural Power is a collection of testimonials, articles and answers to frequently asked questions about NCR.

“This technique is pure genius.” Charles Linn, D.C.

Dr. Dean Howell

Dr. Dean Howell was a mathematician before attending medical school at John Bastyr College of Naturopathic Medicine (1978-82). Upon graduation, he applied mathematical principles to medicine to create NeuroCranial Restructuring, a very precise and powerful manipulation technique that has been evolving over the past 22 years.

As NCR produced spectacular healing results in most patients, word of mouth created enormous demand. Eventually, Dr. Howell had to close his family practice to focus exclusively on NCR. Over the past eight years Dr. Howell has also trained over fifty doctors (M.D.s, N.D.s, D.C.s, D.O.s and D.D.s) throughout the United States to perform this technique.

Dr. Howell is based in Washington State, where he treats patients, trains doctors and conducts continuing research into NCR. Documentation of his work can be found at www.DrDeanHowell.com and www.NCRdoctors.com.
