

Two friends embark on an action-packed adventure, encountering danger and making exciting discoveries about the value of friendship, joy, making dreams come true, treating others with love, and being true to yourself.

“My class loved it! The vibrant colors and charming characters captured the children’s hearts!” Tammy MacDonald, First/Second Grade Teacher

“Excellent lessons for children throughout. Text rich with language and word choice.” Nancy Sunderland, Second grade teacher

“Bright and colorful! The expressions of the characters made them come to life with such vivid emotions!” Cindy J. Finn, Mother of two

“I liked The Adventures of Melon and Turnip because they can talk and because you usually don’t see stories about talking food.” Jessica, Age 8

Trisha Adelena Howell is the author of seven children’s book and regularly gives educational presentations at schools, libraries, and bookstores. Her lifelong love of children, children’s literature, animals, poetry, and nature have come together to create this colorful book.
