Surprise Twist Creates Values and Lessons for Children and Adults

Come away with Princess Lillian on an exciting whirlwind adventure that enables readers to experience the value of unconditional love, family, self-insight, acceptance of others, and appreciating one's blessings.

The Princess and the Pekinese, published by Howell Canyon Press, is an enchanting new children's picture book that surprises and delights audiences of all ages, featuring award-winning illustrator Paul Lopez and author Trisha Adelena Howell. It combines colorful, fast-paced action with a heroine who has a very distinct personality.

Audiences love the snooty princess, the incredible and unique surprise twist in the middle of the book and the life-changing journey upon which Princess Lillian embarks. The Princess and the Pekinese entertains while gently encouraging readers to take an honest look at themselves and at the great value of their lives.

Trisha Adelena Howell is the author of seven children's books. She loves interacting with both children and adults and regularly gives educational presentations at schools, libraries, bookstores, and other organizations. Her lifelong love of children, children's literature, and animals have come together to create this colorful book. Since 1990 Trisha Adelena Howell has published numerous articles, stories, and poems on a wide variety of subjects in newspapers, magazines, and anthologies. She holds a BA and MA in Philosophy, MA in Humanities, and MA in Critical Film Studies. She's taught at Montessori schools, Stanford University, and the University of Southern California.

Howell Canyon Press was founded in 2000 and features health-promoting and uplifting books that celebrate and enhance human functioning at our maximal physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual potentials.
